

Download The Reorganized National Health Service

The United States Public Health Service (USPHS) is a division of the Department of Health and Human Services concerned with public health. It contains eight out of the department's eleven operating divisions. The Assistant Secretary for Health (ASH) oversees the PHS. The Public Health Service Commissioned Corps (PHSCC) is the federal uniformed service of the USPHS, and is one of the seven ... The January/February issue sizes up the top issues that legislators will face in 2019, reports on the crisis in maternity care in the U.S., reviews the challenges of the upcoming census, looks at efforts to keep drinking water clean and dives into the ins and outs of accrual budgeting. Who's improving health care? People are — at hospitals and in office practices all across the US and internationally. IHI decided to share the stories of these individuals. Here is a profile of Helen Bevan of the National Health Service Institute for Innovation and Improvement, UK. October 17, 1962 — Public Law (P.L.) 87-838 authorizes the U.S. Surgeon General, with approval of the Secretary of the DHEW, to "establish in the Public Health Service (PHS) an institute for the conduct and support of research and training relating to maternal health, child health and human development, including research and training in the special health problems and requirements of ...
